

Causes of Heterosexuality

- they were born that way. they can't help it.
- they're sick
- they were corrupted by an older person.

* It started as innocent fun -

it ended as HETEROSEXUALITY *

I've heard straight teachers molesting their students and then giving them red stars - trying to convert them.

- too many pornographic movies
- it's all these new kinky dolls coming out.
- the bath houses and spas encourage that sort of thing.
- the church has been too liberal renting halls out to the straights.
- experiments when they were too young - when their minds were still unformed.
- (Ahem) it generally comes about as a result of a childhood fixation on a person of the wrong sex. Parental permissiveness seems to play some part here as well.

Cures of Heterosexuality

- often counselling will help them sort their confusion out; but many straights require intensive psychiatric therapy to rid them of their unwholesome tendencies.
- they just need to meet the right person of the same sex and have a positive experience.
- but the tougher cases may require behavior modification, say, shock treatment to make sure that they don't fall back into their old ways.
- I've heard that lobotomies are useful.
- at least it would take them out of their misery
- in the worst cases, abstinence and penitence are the best that can be hoped.
- and removing the opportunities to sin
- but that's a problem in our permissive society.
- exactly - just yesterday my daughter saw two straights kissing in public. What do I tell her?

"I KNOW THIS STRAIGHT COUPLE"

①

- they seem perfectly normal.

- but they dress funny, they talk funny
they even walk funny.

The men like to play such macho roles and the women go in for extreme fem roles.

- but they're not all like that

- they're so promiscuous - they only think about sex - and they breed like rabbits - they're a real menace.

- But they're so talented, so clever with their hands, so witty.

- yes but what if one married
your brother?

- did they try to put the make
on you?

- no they understand - no touching.
they behave themselves.

- well I knew some too. Last year
one of them brought her male lover to a party I had. It upset everyone - it was in such bad taste.

- the writing they leave on the washroom walls is disgusting.

"I KNOW THIS STRAIGHT COUPLE" (2)

- how did you get to know these "hets"?
- they prefer to be called straights.

One of them works where I do.

I got to know him quite well at the job. I didn't know at the time that he's straight.

- I'm surprised that you're not disgusted just being in the same room with him.

- They're a bad influence on the children. Yesterday my child said she wants to grow up like Sue that straight character on afternoon TV.

Straight Lib

Straight Pride

THE SPECTRE OF MILITANT HETEROSEXUALITY REARS ITS UGLY HEAD.

- they often claim that some of the world's most creative people - including musicians, artists and scientists - were straight.
- What basis is there for this claim - is it just another wild exaggeration to inflate their egos??
- this may not be in the best of taste to mention on a family-type show, but these characters allege that Johann Sebastian Bach fathered over 20 children without seriously impairing his musical output.
- maybe he was bisexual.
- maybe it was just a phase he was going through.
- maybe he was trying to attract attention.

Well who are these characters anyway?

- they're all commies
- you're just being paranoid
- listen, I even know one secret communist society where you have to be straight to join.
- what I can't figure out is why they call people with such twisted minds straight.
- it's these uppity straights I can't stand
- I wouldn't mind if they were discreet but they flaunt it in public.
