

On October 12 1998, Matthew Shepard, an undergraduate student at the University of Wyoming, died as a result of being viciously beaten. He was attacked because he was gay.

MATTHEW SHEPARD
1976 - 1998

Hate crimes cross all borders; harassment happens on this campus. This event is in memory of the price paid when hatred and intolerance go unchallenged; with hope for a future that holds peace, safety and equality for all people.

MATTHEW SHEPARD VIGIL

The ceremony will include a media presentation, speakers, a performance by the Rainbow Chorus, and reflection. A candlelight walk across campus in Matthew's memory will follow. All are welcome.

TUESDAY OCTOBER 12/99

7:00pm • MacDonald Hall 149

Enter via west side of building • Wheelchair Access at North Entrance

Call 824-4120 x.3000

E-MAIL: rem-matt@uoguelph.ca • WEBSITE: www.uoguelph.ca/~rem-matt

Supported by: Human Rights and Equity Office, Student Housing Services, Wellness Centre, OUTline, GQE, The Ontario, PFLAG