

Black and Pink Triangle Day

Reclaiming the Image

The black and pink triangle represent symbols of hate that were used to identify and deomoralize thousands of men and women during the Holocaust. On February 15th we are reclaiming these symbols to show our pride and presence.

Sponsored By

SpeakOUT

Partnered With

Guelph Queer Equality

Come for a night of reclamation and performances by The Cliks and Evalyn Parry. Time: Doors open at 8. Performances start at 9 Place: Grad Lounge. 5th floor of the University Centre. All ages, split license. Cost is $8.00 or pay what you can! Raffle and 50/50 draw.