

KICK OFF YOUR READING WEEK
PINK AND BLACK
TRIANGLE DAY
February 15

Reclaiming the Image

The black and pink triangle represent symbols of hate that were used to identify and dehumanize thousands of men and women during the Holocaust. We are reclaiming these symbols to show our pride and presence.

Doors open at 8. Performances start at 9
Grad Lounge, 5th floor of the University Centre.
$8.00 or pay what you can!

All ages, split license.

Any special accommodations please contact GQE in advance at gqe@uoguelph.ca or ext 56702

Presented by SpeakOUT and Guelph Queer Equality