ACCKWA Pioneers Phone Network for Women

By Peter J. Dillon

Commencing later this month will be a telephone support network for women living with HIV/AIDS. ACCKWA, the Aids Committee of Cambridge, Kitchener, Waterloo and Area, have started this service, called Telelink so that women "...will be able to share their feelings and ideas, with each other, in the privacy and convenience of their own homes."

The support group will operate much like a tele-conference call, facilitated by a female staff member from ACCKWA. More information is available by calling ACCKWA at (519) 748-5556. Collect calls about information are being accepted for unwaged females outside the region. All teleconferencing charges are being covered by ACCKWA. Δ

A Brief Explanation...

Due to some internal administrative problems, some of you may not have seen December's PTCC. In fact, unless you're a subscriber, you probably couldn't find it anywhere!! Well, friends, we're really sorry and we promise to try and never let it happen again. Anyway, some of the articles that ran in December (or that were scheduled to run) have been re-run in this issue. Enjoy! - The Staff

The Pink Triangle Community Calendar is a not-for-profit publication serving the lesbian/ gay community in Kitchener, Waterloo, Guelph, and Cambridge. It is available at ACCKWA, Blueleaf Bookshop, Bookshelf Cafe, Circles, Dr. Disc, GLOW, Global Community Centre, Guelph Gay and Lesbian Equality, Guelph Women in Crisis, Princess Cinema, the Robin's Nest, Surrender Dorothy, UW Women's Centre, Womansline Books (London), Women's Bookstop (Hamilton), and Woodsworth Books. PTCC mailing address: P.O.Box 986, Waterloo, N2J 4S1

What's Happening in the New Year?

This issue marks the debut of several new, hopefully regular columns and features. Starting on page 5, Travelogue is the PTCC's guide to international travel focusing on specific destinations of interest to the gay community. Outings is a new addition to our General Notices section and features travel/recreation activities closer to home.

PTCC also will be presenting The Queer Year In Review, a look back at the events of 1991 that helped shape and define gay and lesbian life in some appreciable way.

Our advertising and classified rates have also changed -- see our insert for more information. Psssst...check out the classifieds!

Starting next month, PTCC will be featuring Brothers & Sisters, a column devoted to famous gays, lesbians and bisexuals. Some old faces (Did you know that James Dean was gay?), some new ones (Like Jane Siberry), some you know (Divine), and some who might surprise you (Lily Tomlin).

Also starting next month, Allison MacFarlane and Denise Lilliman will be producing cartoon panels for our new arts feature, A Space of One's Own. Allison and Denise's work is warm and witty and guaranteed to raise a smile -- and maybe a blush or two! Also appearing in next month's feature will be some creative writing from Chris Chin, who wrote this month's review of Fruit Cocktail 1991.

Remember: Your articles and submissions are always welcome. Send them either to our P.O. Box or drop them by the GLOW office. We are always looking for volunteers to help with typesetting, distribution, and advertising -- if you can help, let us know!!

SUBSCRIPTIONS

$15.00 per year. We publish monthly, 12 times a year. Your $15.00 covers all your mailing costs.

ADVERTISING

For print-ready copy (exact dimensions in black ink on white paper), our (cheap!) rates per issue for advertising are as follows:

Business Card (9cmx5cm) -- $5.00
1/4 Page -- $9.00
1/2 Page -- $15.00

The full page size may, on occasion, appear as an insert subject to space restrictions.

We will, upon request and subject to our resources, typeset an ad if it is not too complex. We charge a base fee of $2.50 plus $5.00 per hour in addition to the standard rates outlined above. All ads requiring typesetting must be received by the 15th of the month before the month in whose issue the ad is to run.

The PTCC reserves the right to restrict the amount of typesetting done each month based on a first-come, first-served system. We will notify you if your ad cannot be typeset in time for the next issue of the PTCC.

Since typeset ads will be kept for one year from their first issue appearance, there are no typesetting charges for multiple issue advertising, even if the issues in which the ad appears are not sequential. Δ

Wilfred Laurier Starts Own Group for Gays

By Gary Van Lingen

In the past, WLU has had the oft-times well-deserved reputation for being a gay/lesbian hinterland. Anyone not conforming to the straight "norm" would have been considered unbalanced for attending a narrow minded, conservative and generally all-round prickish school. A person could expect to suffer from numerous incidents of verbal abuse as well as threats of physical abuse (not to mention what professors could do to your marks). Laurier was, and in some ways still is, a really uncomfortable place for gay, lesbian and bisexual people.

But, as with all things, change can occur with time.

Attitudes and the situation at WLU are no exception. A number of policies have been either enacted (such as a sexual harassment policy with a wide mandate, including homophobic comments and actions) or at least considered. Policies that would never have been dreamt of in the past -- same-sex spousal benefits, for instance -- have only recently been considered (in this case, just late last term). These new policies could benefit those people negatively affected by the attitudes of other people at the school, as well as being proactive for some issues. These policies, however, were not created overnight and had to have a beginning however small, someplace.

Such is the case for the formation of a student group concerned with issues of sexual orientation / preference at WLU. Staff and faculty are invited to participate, as are members of the community at large, although WLU Student Union requirements stipulate that a minimum of seven (7) WLU students are in support of the group. The idea of a student group is not new; there existed such a group beginning in 1983 but disbanded under various pressures in late 1985. Today, there is an initiative to re-instate this group with major support from key people including the WLU Student Union

Laurier ... still is ... a really uncomfortable place for gays....

President, the Vice President of University Affairs, and the Dean of Students. It is hoped that enough interest can be generated this school term in order to give the group full status before the terms of office end for the Student Union leaders.

If you are interested, or know someone who is interested in supporting this initiative, leave a message for me, Gary, at GLOW. I need a name and phone number, or a UNIX account (all used with discretion and in confidentiality). You can also e-mail me at Unix3!pdawso3 if you have UNIX access at Laurier. Δ

Can We Talk?

By Allison MacFarlane and Jim Parrott

Beginning later this month, GLOW will be setting up a discussion group separate from the informal discussions in the GLOW coffeehouses. The group is not intended to provide therapy, but rather to allow us to explore lesbian and gay issues through the sharing of personal experiences. We expect to gain from this a better appreciation of the diversity and validity of other people's experience, as well as more insight into our own experience. In addition, we hope that this will reinforce and strengthen our communication skills and our willingness to use them with other people.

At present, the gay community in KW has various places in which to socialize or to feel a sense of gay and lesbian community, including the GLOW meetings and the local dance clubs and bars. We hope that this new discussion group will be a useful alternative to what exists right now, and that it can act as a support group for people who want this kind of interaction. We also believe that the group will be most successful if it has participants of different backgrounds, of different ages and from different segments of the community. We extend a warm welcome to all who are interested. Please get in touch with Allison or Jim at the GLOW office.

Possible topics include: coming out to family and friends, being open in a school or work environment, relationships with our parents, achieving intimacy with another person of the same sex, sustaining intimate relationships, practising safer sex without losing the immediacy of the moment, stereotypes about lesbians and gay men, internalized homophobia, role-playing in relationships, racism in the gay community, living in a heterosexual environment, gay and lesbian fiction, reaching out and rejection, friendships with other gay men and lesbians, body image and happiness, gay history, and developing a sense of community. Let us know what you're interested in!

Travelogue: Where Are Your Rights Respected?

By Peter J. Dillon

While generally, most gay bars are safe enough, the areas they are sometimes located in are not. Gay frequented parks and cruising areas are for the most part NOT safe. Bathhouses are safer than both parks and going home with a stranger from a bar in which no one knows where you are going. Your own common sense is your best defence, places we mention as fun, and or safe or worthwhile are personal recommendations only.

Besides your personal safety there are also legal aspects to be considered. The only provinces and territories to have passed legal rights against discrimination by sexual orientation are Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Nova Scotia and Yukon. Remember which provinces support your orientation when you plan your next vacation.

Things are worse in the United States; 25 states still have sodomy laws. Of these 25 states, six discriminate against gays specifically and have homosexual sodomy laws only (Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, and Texas).

The "free" states have no sodomy laws, and thus you can not be convicted of same-sex anal or oral intercourse (above the age of consent, of course!). These states are: Alaska, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. Only three states to date have a comprehensive gay rights law in place: Wisconsin, Massachusetts and New York. On a global scale, as of late 1989, homosexuality is not illegal in Thailand, China, Brazil, Argentina, Colombia, Mexico, Peru and New Zealand, as well as most European and Central American countries. This is not to state that it is fully legal in these countries, but in a lot of cases a complete denial of its existence.

On the other hand there is definite legislative laws against homosexuality in: Romania, Cuba, Chile, Ecuador, Jamaica, India, Singapore, Malaysia, Pakistan, Bangladesh as well as the Islamic countries of North Africa and the Middle East plus the rest of Africa and the Caribbean.

Back on a more local level, there are now 68 North American municipalities that have enacted some form of protective legislation. So enjoy your travels, be careful and be proud of your gay identity. Next month's TRAVELOGUE will feature Los Angeles. Remember, Guest columns are always welcome, too, if you've travelled somewhere and are willing to share your adventures and opinions on the bar scene and other gay establishments and events, not to mention the natives! # Fruit Cocktail '91

by Chris Chin

The bi-annual presentation of Fruit Cocktail opened November 28, 1991 at the Winter Garden Theatre in Toronto. For the first time outside the Ryerson Theatre, the gay and lesbian vaudeville revue played to a packed house at what was supposed to be a dress rehearsal, but felt more like opening night. Every seat in the house was filled, from the orchestra to the balconies to the box seats -- and at only $15.00 for any seat in the house, it was a treat for the pocketbook as well as for the soul. This was the first time that either my companion or I had seen Fruit Cocktail, but that fact did nothing to diminish the enjoyable evening we had. The enthusiasm of the performers was at a fever pitch as act after act made our senses reel. From the fantastic opening ensemble of "Gay Vaudeville" to the tender lesbian duet of "I Knew Her So Well" through to a spectacular sequined production of Elton John's "The Bitch Is Back" and countless skits and sketches that accurately and sometimes poignantly captured the various facets of gay and lesbian life. The entire show was translated into sign language for the hearing impaired -- a thoughtful touch. Conveniently located elevators also guaranteed access by wheelchair users, allowing barrier-free attendance for all.

The ever-popular Fruits -- Pineapple (Harold B. Desmarais), Orange (Pieter Huisman), Banana (Beth Donald), Kiwi (Jeremy Vincent), Blueberries (David Kelley) and Tomato (Susan Moore) -- returned several times to the stage to keep the production going. It was also the Fruits that made a clever promotion for the Lesbian and Gay Community Appeal, the organization that helps present and fund Fruit Cocktail. As usual, the proceeds from this year's production will go towards funding community projects, organizations, and individuals.

An excellent cast and five-piece orchestra under the direction of Garth Lambert, combined with a dedicated crew and countless behind-the-scenes volunteer individuals have come together once again to create what promises to be the most successful and professional production of Fruit Cocktail ever!!
