Robert G. Miller – Artistic Director

Robert Miller has been a musician since childhood. He studied music at the University of Guelph and for a number of years was the Music Director at Harcourt Memorial United Church. He left Guelph to expand his musical career in Toronto at the Metropolitan United Church and in Copenhagen studying organ and conducting the Homofon Kor.

In the fall of 2000, he returned to Guelph as the Artistic Director of the Rainbow Chorus. The Chorus has grown under his direction. His leadership has taken us to Toronto, Montreal and Carnegie Hall, New York.

Alison MacNeill – Pianist

Alison is a busy, free-lance accompanist, a chamber musician and a studio teacher.

At present, along with the Rainbow Chorus, she is pianist for the Guelph Chamber Choir, appearing on their two latest recordings.

She holds the position of Music Director at Harcourt Memorial United Church, where she manages a vibrant program of choirs and instrumentalists.

The Rainbow Chorus Waterloo-Wellington, now in our 14th season is a community chorus comprised of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transsexual & straight individuals dedicated to the celebration of diversity through song. Annually, we produce two concerts, and participate in number of community events, at which we perform a broad spectrum of choral music. We have participated in Gay and Lesbian Choral Festivals in Toronto and Montreal and in 2006 we were privileged to take part in a performance of the Aids requiem "When We No Longer Touch" at the famed Carnegie Hall.

As a charitable, non-profit organization we depend upon the generosity of our supporters to help us continue our work so that we may touch hearts and change lives through the power of music. For more information on how to book an event, make a charitable donation to our chorus, or to find out how to become a member, please visit our new website at www.rainbowchorus.ca
