Thanks to all who participated in the Matthew Shepard Memorial. It was especially rewarding to have Rob (unexpectedly) and Amy with us.

Brunch is being planned at Robert Godere's Restaurant, "Harrop's", in Milton on Dec. 5th at 11:30. Robert has kindly invited us (cost will be minimal—approx. $15.00 per person) and it is our hope to make it a Christmas social for the choir. Mark your calendars!!!

Raindrops can be used by all choir members and will be distributed after each Board Meeting in an attempt to keep members well informed. Anyone with information or announcements they would like circulated here, please submit to Cory in a timely fashion.

Uniforms in the form of a rainbow vest are still a possibility for our Christmas concert. Jan is presently doing research and when the time comes you may be invited to a "Sew In". Sewers, cutters, pinner, and ironers?, salute your instruments and prepare to create.

Membership lists are distributed as apart of this newsletter. Please check to make sure all your information is accurate and see Cory about errors and/or omissions

Welcome Back to Wendell Martin, Dave Vervoort, Rick Beutler, and a big first time welcome to Erin Kinrade and Ann Turner. We're happy to have you all with us. As well, we hope to have Birgit singing with us whenever she can. We miss her.
