K-W Pride will be held on June 16th and 17th, and we are hoping to be more involved than we have been previously. It is our hope that this will give us a little more control over our presentation, and in fact the Cabaret style performance for the Friday Night has been approved as a part of the Pride festivities. We will be investigating venues in the Kitchener Waterloo area for this concert. Anyone with suggestions should please speak to someone on the board.

The Christmas Concert was a great success in many ways. We were well received by the greater community, AND WE LOOKED AWESOME!! Perhaps it behooves us to investigate doing similar community performances. A special thanks to Rob for sticking to his guns about the repertoire when we gave him so much grief about it. It was the right piece to do..

The Anniversary Concert was also a success both artistically and financially. A special thanks to Murray for his powerful and touching poem. Thanks to Rob for his talents and persistence. We are also very grateful for all those who came on board at the last minute to help round out the sound.

Volunteers Needed for all events. Please see Marg Perchaluk if you might be willing and able to contribute some time and energy either for the dances and/or the concerts.

The Dances continue to be more and more successful. Thanks to all who contribute to this cause, specifically Leslie and Jeff. The board are always committed to being there, but it is very rewarding to consistently have these two men helping out with posters, setup, decorations, serving bar, cleanup, and assorted other jobs without complaint. Also thanks to Dave, whose efforts with the 50/50 draw are truly amazing. Thanks guys!!

Charitable Status is still in the works. Pat hopes to have all the changes approved very shortly and she will keep us up to date....."And So It Goes"
