WOODS in KW

Renewals—If you haven't renewed yet, this will be your last calendar!

• January/February 1991 Events •

Planning/Steering Committee Meeting

Thursday January 17, 7pm

Lisa's Place – ■-54 Weber St S, Waterloo 579-■

Pop and munchies provided

Come out! Help Out! WOODS is run on volunteer effort, which is the club's most valuable asset. It's not hard, but it takes time, and we need some fresh ideas and energy. As anyone who has worked in a volunteer organization for a significant length of time knows, one or two people cannot carry the club indefinitely. We've got lots of information for you to look through. You can get involved in any capacity you like; learn more about how the club operates. It's a great way to meet people. Hoist yourself out of that armchair! Make a New Year's resolution! Get involved!

Movie: Listen Up: The Lives of Quincy Jones

Thursday January 31, 6.45pm

Meet at the Princess Cinema lobby

A candid, funny and fascinating portrait of twentieth century pop music's Michelangelo, the indomitable Quincy Jones. Not just a jazz movie.

Beaver Valley Ski Weekend

Friday February 8-Sunday February 10

Get ready for some of the best cross-country and downhill skiing in the province. We'll be renting the same rustic farmhouse in the country, with a fireplace and that old kitchen with the long wooden table for fun potluck meals. $50/person for two nights accommodation. A $20 deposit will reserve your spot. Make cheque payable to "WOODS in KW" and mail to our address.

Party, Women, Food

Yes, well, now that we have your attention—we are seeking more coordinators. No experience is necessary. Duties may include event coordination, mailing, newsletter input, idea scouting, phone contact, membership surveys, resource person, whatever you can do to enrich the group. It is an excellent way to develop organizational skills and/or use your existing skills within the community, and have fun, too! Please contact us for more information.
