It's free! Take a tour of the festival backstage, wardrobe activities, etc. We can walk around Stratford and eat dinner out.

Ides of March Potluck Supper

For all those Julius Caesar fans who remember that day, and those that don't. Come on out for a pot luck supper and we'll dance the calories off at Circles. Call Deb for details, 746-████.

Saturday March 16

Meet at Frederick St Mall coffeeshop, Kitchener to carpool at 8 am sharp!

We'll do the Sportsman's Show in the morning ($8) at Exhibition Place, and later see the special exhibit at the Royal Ontario Museum — Wildlife Images in Painting and Sculpture ($5). WOODS Planning Meeting

Tuesday April 9, 7pm

Lisa's place, █████-54 Weber St S., Waterloo, 579-████

Our January meeting was successful, so we will be holding meetings every other month to plan events. We need your ideas and energy. No experience is necessary. Come on out, get involved!

Is it Bike Season Yet?

Sunday April 28, 1pm

Meet at Waterloo Town Square in front of K-Mart, or call Deb for location in case of bad weather (746-████)

Weather permitting, let's get an early start to the season. If the weather is bad, let's meet anyway and plan some fun cycling events.

Trout Fishing

Sunday May 5

Glen Haffy Conservation Area near Orangeville has a stocked pond. Call Kathy, 821-████, for details.

Birdwatching and Camping

May 17, 18, 19

Keep this weekend open for the annual trek to Point Pelee to watch the birds — or watch the people who watch the birds. The weather can't be worse than it was for last year's trip and we all survived that! Luxury tent accommodations at Wheatley Provincial Park near Leamington cost about $10 a night. Phone Karen early so she can book enough campsites. For further information or to reserve a space, call Karen after 6pm or on weekends at 824-████ (Guelph).

16th Michigan Womyn's Music Festival

August 14-18, 1991

I know the festival seems far away, but let's begin now to organize the WOODS convoy or caravan to Hart, Michigan. If you want to go or help plan things, call Deb, 746-████.
